

Trafficking suspects arrested

* Kenyan police have arrested seven Somali men for allegedly operating a human trafficking ring at a refugee camp in the country's east. The suspects had been smuggling refugees from Dadaab camp to Nairobi, where they used fake documents to leave for Europe and Canada, Northeastern Regional Coordinator Mohamed Saleh said.