

EFF pushes to insource City of Jo'burg workers

* The Economic Freedom Fighters says it has tabled a successful motion in the Johannesburg Metropolitan Council, pushing for the city to insource all its contract workers. They include security guards, cleaners, refusal removal workers, drivers and all general workers currently working in the metro under various outsourcing companies.