

High Court locked down after prisoners escape

* Two sources have confirmed that judges at the Gauteng High Court (Johannesburg) were on lockdown for an hour yesterday afternoon after two prisoners awaiting trial for murder escaped. The judges were subsequently allowed to leave the court. The prisoners have not yet been arrested.